

Rajesh Chabbra

Executive Director- Transportation South Asia, EGIS

Rajesh Chaabra is a highly qualified Civil Engineer with an MBA and an impressive record of more than 28 years in the infrastructure industry. He possess extensive experience in various sectors, including Roads and Highways, Structures, Railways, Metro, and the Water Sector. Rajesh has successfully held leadership positions in both national and international contexts, showcasing his versatility and adaptability in different environment.

Currently, Rajesh serves as Executive Director, South Asia for Egis. In this role, he is responsible for developing and executing strategic plans for growth of transportation department, advising clients on critical decisions, managing profit and loss (P&L), Safety/quality control, planning, project performance, risk assessment, and ethical standards.

Having served in leadership role (both domestically and internationally), Rajesh possesses comprehensive knowledge and expertise in these areas. He has also played key role in operations and maintenance for key infrastructure projects, business development, assuming P&L responsibility. Rajesh has successfully managed projects in diverse terrain and climatic conditions across multiple countries, including India, Mauritius, Cambodia, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, African Countries, CIS Countries and the Philippines.

In his career, Rajesh has demonstrated exceptional leadership skills, leading a team of over 500 professionals as the portfolio lead for a global design centre. He excels as a planner, strategist, and implementer, adept at establishing and managing entire project activities. He has gained valuable experience working with esteemed funding agencies such as World Bank, Asian Development Bank (ADB) and African development Bank, NDB, etc ensuring compliance with their standards and requirements.

Rajesh Chaabra is a highly accomplished professional in the infrastructure industry, known for his exceptional leadership, strategic thinking, and vast experience across different sectors and geographies. His robust skill set, combined with his commitment to sustainable practices and ethical business operations, has made him a valuable asset in driving successful projects and achieving organizational growth.

Rajesh is member of professional agencies such as Member Indian Road Congress, Member Institute of Engineers and registered Chartered Engineer.

He has worked with CES India limited (presently known as Jacobs), Egis, Halcrow, CH2mhill (presently known as Jacobs) , Systra, Welspun before joining back with Egis in March 2024.