

Vincenzo Vinzi

President & Dean, Essec Business School and President, CDEFM
(Conference of Directors of French Management Schools)

Vincenzo Vinzi has been the Managing Director of ESSEC Business School since January 2018. He holds a PhD in statistics from the University of Naples Federico II and has been a visiting professor and lecturer at several universities around the world. In 2007, he joined ESSEC as a professor of statistics and was elected dean of the faculty in December 2011. He serves on several international boards and advisory committees. It is also a member of the OECD's Business for Inclusive Growth partnership. He is the president of the CGE's Diversity Commission, and President of the Conference of Directors of the French Management Schools (CDEFM).